

Transnational Public Participation and Social Movement Activism

Ambiguities of global spread,
professionalization and standardization

14-15 November 2013, Lisbon

FCSH-UNL | ISCTE-IUL

Public Plenary Sessions:

(as part of an international academic workshop)

November 14 | 16h00 | ISCTE-IUL, B203

Starting a dialogue – How can we strengthen exchange and cooperation between research on transnational public participation and on transnational social movements?

Welcoming notes from CIES

Prof. Mikko Rask (National Consumer Research Centre, Finland)

Prof. Sabrina Zajak (University Bochum, Germany)

Venue: Av.^a das Forças Armadas, 1649-026 Lisboa

November 15 | 16h30 | FCSH-UNL, Auditório 1

Research meets practice – What's the relevance of social movement activism and public participation practices for science and vice versa?

Introductory notes from Prof. António Brandão Moniz, CESNOVA, Lisbon

Prof. Tiago Santos Pereira (CES Coimbra, Portugal)

Dr. Raul Pacheco-Vega (CIDE Aguascalientes, Mexico)

Jamila Raqib (Executive Director of Albert Einstein Institution, USA)

Venue: Av. de Berna, 26 C, 1069-061 Lisboa

For more information contact Nina Amelung (nina.amelung@tu-berlin.de),
Britta Baumgarten (britta.baumgarten@gmail.com),
or consult <http://cesnova.fcsh.unl.pt/>;
<http://cesnova.fcsh.unl.pt/?area=000&mid=006&yearID=2013&monthID=11&dayID=14>.